Y. Gaynor called the meeting to order at 10:03 am and called the roll. Sean Clark read the minutes from the August 6 SCAC meeting and a motion was made to accept the minutes by P. Marshburn as read and the motion was 2nd by I. Kirschmann. Minutes was accepted and minutes will be corrected.

Old Business:

Reappointment of committee members was addressed by Y. Gaynor and each member whose term expires on September 30, 2018 has committed to another term. Sarah Drew will serve until December 31, 2018.

Y. Gaynor announced that the SCAC identification badges and SCAC informational rack cards have been created. Moving forward, the goal is to have the minutes uploaded to the website within 2 weeks after being reviewed by the committee.

New Business:

Y. Gaynor acknowledged a new initiative to present new guest with a welcome bag filled with information and small gifts as a token of the committee's appreciation.

Subcommittee reports:

Cynthia Harris reported for the Awards Committee. The promotional items have been distributive and uploaded to the city's website. The Hampton Sr. Center will be the location for the event with final decisions being made for the guest speaker and vocal selections during the month of October.

Yvonne Gaynor pointed out several accomplishments that have been made along with future goals and the mission. This information can be shared with citizens who are interested in supporting or just want more insight on what SCAC is all about.

Gloria Jones hosted a senior brunch for those aged 90 & up. During the brunch many expressed their concern of being sent to nursing homes. Within the next few months the speaker bureau will be seeking out guest speakers to provide more insight on options for seniors when faced with that decision.

Sandy provided the residential association report. The committee's goal was to meet with the manager of residential facilities and explain who we are and explore ways of getting the tenants more involved. They plan on going out to more residential associations within the next weeks.

The Town Hall Committee will be reconvening next month to begin working on dates and agenda for the Town Hall.

The Master Plan Committee will be working to get a packet of information together and reviewing the city's community plan to ensure we are all aligned.
