Suspects Sought in Robbery from Business Investigation: 200 block of Buckroe Avenue

The Hampton Police Division is seeking the public's assistance in locating the suspects responsible for a robbery from business that occurred on October 28, 2013.

At 9:41 p.m., Hampton Communications received an alarm activation from the Buckroe Beach Market located in the 200 block of Buckroe Avenue. The investigation revealed that two suspects entered the business; both displayed firearms and discharged rounds towards the employee. While brandishing the firearm, the suspects demanded money from the employee. Before the suspects obtained any money they fled on foot from business. No one was injured during the incident.

Officer's immediately saturated the area and observed two individuals matching the suspect's description getting into a 1983 Chevrolet which had been parked in the 2400 block of East Pembroke Avenue. A traffic stop was conducted and two of the three occupants ran from the vehicle.

The first suspect has been identified as, Jaquan Lashawn Powell, a 20-year-old Newport News man who has active warrants for one count of Burglary While Armed, one count of Attempt Robbery, one count of Attempt Maiming, one count of Shooting in an Occupied Dwelling, four counts of Use of a Firearm in the Commission and one count of Wearing a Mask in Public. The second suspect has been identified as, Rakeem Dejonte Northcutt, a 21-year-old Newport News man who has active warrants on file for one count of Burglary While Armed, one count of Attempt Robbery, one count of Attempt Maiming, one count of Shooting in an occupied Dwelling, four counts Use of a Firearm in the Commission of a Felony and one count of Possession of a Firearm by a Convicted Felon.
