Hampton TRIAD Car, Truck and Bike Show

The Hampton TRIAD is going to host its first car show at the Hampton Coliseum on Saturday, November 2, 2013, from 9:00 a.m. to 3 pm. This event is open to the public and attendance is free.

There is a nominal $20.00 registration fee for anyone wishing to exhibit a vehicle at the car show.

Some of the proceeds raised from this event will allow TRIAD to sponsor a Senior Safety Expo to nearly 150 senior citizens of Hampton. This event brings speakers from around the state to present safety information to avoid scams and frauds against some of our most vulnerable citizens. During the expo, participants will also be served lunch and dozens of door prizes are raffled off. Proceeds from the event will also benefit other senior programs such as meals on wheels and partner with Peninsula Agency on the Aging.

The Hampton TRIAD is a partnership that brings together representatives from the Sheriff's Office, Fire Department, Police Department, Hampton Parks and Recreation, senior citizens and senior service providers. Its' primary focus is senior safety and the reduction of crime. The Hampton TRIAD also addresses senior concerns and works to link seniors with various services and activities throughout the community. TRIAD's mission is to enhance the quality of life for senior citizens through education and delivery of services.

The Hampton Police Division will also be participating in the event. The Division will have on display unique police vehicles like the SWAT Tactical Command Center, our armored personnel carrier and the Marine Patrol boat just to name a few. Attendees will also have the opportunity to meet and greet with officers throughout the event.

Sergeant Jason Price will receive questions about this release at 757-727-6638.
