Suspect Arrested for Robbery from Business: 900 block of West Mercury Boulevard

The Hampton Police Division has arrested Robert Allen Carroll in connection with a robbery from business that occurred on December 26, 2013.

The investigation revealed that at 3:28 a.m., Hampton Communications received an e911 call in reference to robbery from business that had just occurred at the Walgreens located in the 900 block of West Mercury Boulevard. Upon officer's arrival, they discovered that the suspect entered the business, displayed a firearm and demanded prescription medication. However, prior to obtaining any property, the suspect fled from the business. Responding officers observed a gold Buick sedan in the 1800 block of North Armistead Avenue that was being driven by an individual that matched the suspect's description. A traffic stop was conducted during which the suspect was taken into custody without incident.

Robert Allen Carroll, a 40-year-old Williamsburg man that resides in the 400 block of Yorkshire Drive, has been arrested in connection with this incident. He has been charged with one count of robbery, one count of use of a firearm while in commission of a felony, one count of possession of a firearm by convicted felon, one count of burglary while armed and one count of wearing a mask in public. Mr. Carroll remains in custody at the Hampton City Jail.
