Crime Line Tip Leads to Arrest in Robbery from Business Investigation: 200 Block of Fox Hill Road

As a result of a tip received via Crime Line, the Hampton Police Division has arrested two suspects in connection with a bank robbery that occurred at the Navy Federal Credit Union on October 8, 2013.

The investigation revealed that on October 8, 2013, at 2:17 p.m., a suspect entered the Navy Federal Credit Union located in the 200 block of Fox Hill Road, displayed a firearm and demanded U.S. currency. After obtaining an undisclosed amount of U.S. currency the suspect fled from the business on a bicycle. No one was injured during the incident.

On January 23, 2013, Colt Lee Weatherby, a 26-year-old Lanexa man who resides in the 1500 block of Pocahontas Trail and Alicia Taylor Forehand, a 20-year-old Smithfield woman who resides in the 100 block of North James Landing were arrested without incident. Mr. Weatherby has been charged with one count of Bank Robbery, one count of Burglary While Armed, two counts of Use of a Firearm in the Commission of a Felony and one count of Wearing a Mask in Public. Ms. Forehand has been charged with one count of Bank Robbery. They are both currently in the custody of the Hampton Sheriff's Office.
