Small business workshop set for March 18

March 7, 2014 - The Hampton Economic Development Department is hosting a free small business workshop on Tuesday, March 18, from 7:30-9:30 a.m. in the Veterans Conference Room at 1 Franklin Street in downtown Hampton.

The workshop is designed to help entrepreneurs and small businesses succeed by connecting them with important business resources.

Representatives from the Small Business Administration, the Small Business Development Center, SCORE and the Peninsula Chamber of Commerce will provide an overview of their programs and services. Local lenders will be on hand to provide information on business services and lending.

The conference is free, but seating is limited and registration ends March 14. Register online. For more information please contact the Economic Development Department at 757-728-6367
