One Suspect Arrested and Two Additional Suspects Sought in Burglary Investigation:

1100 Block of Big Bethel Road

The Hampton Police Division has arrested one suspect and is asking for the public's help in identifying two additional suspects in connection with a Burglary that occurred on May 4, 2014.

On May 5, 2014, Public Safety Communications received a call in reference to a Burglary complaint at the Queens Way Soul Café located in the 1100 block of Big Bethel Road. The investigation revealed that on May 4, 2014, at approximately 11:50 p.m., three suspects (two males and one female) entered the business through the front door which was found to have been intentionally left unsecured by an employee. Once inside of the business the suspects went to the rear of the business and removed a safe which contained an undisclosed amount of U.S. Currency.

Jeule Requita Epps, a 23-year-old Hampton female and employee of the business has been arrested and charged with one count of Burglary and one count of Grand Larceny in connection with this incident. Two additional unknown male suspects who concealed their identity are wanted in connection with this incident.
