Suspects Arrested and Charged in Shooting Investigation: 800 Block of Lasalle Avenue

The Hampton Police Division has two suspects in custody in connection with a shooting that occurred on July 17, 2014.

At 1:18 p.m., Public Safety Communications received multiple calls in reference to a shots fired complaint in the 800 block of Lasalle Avenue. Upon officers arrival they located two businesses within Queens Plaza (Adams Pawn Shop & Lift Jesus Higher Ministries) that had been struck by suspected gunfire. In addition to the businesses an occupied residence in the 900 block of Queen Street was also struck.

Descriptions of the alleged suspects were quickly disseminated to arriving officers. An extensive foot pursuit ensued which resulted in the apprehension of the two suspects. The investigation revealed that there was an exchange of gunfire between the suspects and an unknown victim. During the shooting, two businesses and a residence were shot into. There were no injuries at either location.

Kemar R. White, a 24-year-old Hampton man that resides in the 300 block of Mallory Street and Calvin J. Schofield, a 22-year-old Hampton man that resides in the 600 block of West Queensview have been arrested in connection with this incident. Both subjects were charged with two counts of Shooting into an occupied dwelling, one count of shooting across a roadway, one count of Discharging a Firearm in a Public Place and one count of Conspiracy to Commit a Felony. Both subjects remain in custody at the Hampton City Jail. The mug shots are being withheld pending the on-going investigation.

Sergeant Jason Price will receive questions about this release
