UPDATE-Pedestrian Crash Fatality Investigation: 1900 Block of East Pembroke Avenue

On November 14, 2014 at 7:52 p.m., Hampton Police Communications received multiple calls in reference to a pedestrian crash in the 1900 block of East Pembroke Avenue . Upon officer s arrival, they located a male pedestrian in the roadway. Members of the Hampton Fire & Rescue Division transported the victim by ambulance with life threatening injuries. On November 15 at 3:31 a.m., the victim, Larry Masopust, a 19-year-old Hampton man died as a result of his injuries.

The preliminary investigation has revealed, Mr. Masopust crossed the eastbound lanes of Pembroke Avenue to the westbound lanes of Pembroke Avenue when he was struck by a 2005 Ford Minivan. The crash is being investigated by the members of the Hampton Police Division Reconstruction Team and remains under investigation. The driver of the vehicle which struck Mr. Masopust remained on scene and is fully cooperating with the ongoing investigation. As additional information becomes available it will be released.

Corporal Mary Shackelford will receive questions about this release
