For Immediate Release

January 18, 2013

Homicide Investigation: 200 South Back River Road

The Hampton Police Division is seeking the public's assistance with locating the suspect(s) involved in a shooting that occurred on January 17, 2013.

At 11:02 p.m., the Hampton Police Division was notified that two victims were being treated for gunshot wounds at the Sentara Careplex. Upon officer's arrival, they discovered that victims were suffering from gunshot wounds to their upper body. The adult male victim that sustained life threatening injuries was pronounced deceased on January 18, 2013 at 10:15 a.m. The second victim, a 23-year-old Hampton man, sustained injuries that were non-life threatening. He was treated and released from the hospital.

The preliminary investigation has revealed that the two victims were occupying a 2012 Chevy Malibu when they were shot by unknown suspect(s) in the 200 block of South Back River Road. After being shot, the victims drove themselves to the hospital for treatment. Identification of the deceased victim will be released pending notification of the next of kin. The motive is still under investigation and as further information becomes available it will be released.
