Shooting Investigation: 2100 Block of Woodmansee Drive

The Hampton Police Division has arrested the suspect involved in a shooting that occurred on January 21, 2013 in the 2100 block of Woodmansee Drive.

At 3:41 p.m., Hampton Police Communications received multiple e911 calls in reference to shots being fired in the 2100 block of Woodmansee Drive. Witnesses to the incident provided police with a description of the vehicle the suspect was seen fleeing the area in. While officers were responding, they located the suspect vehicle, a green 1993 Toyota Camry near the intersection of Buckroe Ave and Old Buckroe Road. Officers conducted a traffic stop and took the suspect into custody without further incident.

The investigation revealed that the suspect fired multiple shots in the 2100 block of Woodmansee Drive. No one was injured, nor was anything struck during the shooting. Arrested in connection with this incident was Tyrell Jordan, a 21-year-old Hampton man that resides in the 2100 block of Zinzer Road. He was charged with one count of Discharge of a Firearm.

Sergeant Jason Price will receive questions about this release at 757-897-2657.
