Second Suspect Arrested in Homicide Investigation:

2900 Block of Shell Road

On June 11, 2013, at 1:08 p.m., Hampton Communications received multiple calls in reference to a shots fired complaint in the 2900 block of Shell Road. Upon officer's arrival they located Terrell Gerard Owens, a 29-year-old Hampton man who had suffered from a gunshot wound to the upper body in the parking lot of Roy's Quick Serve located at 2903 Shell Road. Members of the Hampton Fire and Rescue Division responded to the scene and pronounced the victim deceased.

The preliminary investigation has revealed that the victim and suspect got into a physical altercation inside of a vehicle that was parked in front of the business. The altercation continued from the vehicle to the parking lot when the altercation escalated and the suspect displayed a firearm and shot the victim.

Andre Marquis Monroe, a 29-year-old Hampton man who resides in the 400 block of Alleghany Road was arrested and charged with one count of Murder, one count of Use of a Firearm in the Commission of a Felony and one count of Possession of Cocaine. On June 12, 2013, at 6:30 p.m., Zachary Lamont Batts, a 29-year-old Newport News man was arrested without incident and charged with one count of Murder, one count of Possession of a Firearm by a Convicted Felon and one count of Use of a Firearm in the Commission of a Felony. Both suspects remain incarcerated at the Hampton City Jail.
