Suspect Arrested for Multiple Residential Burglaries: First Block of Tidemill Lane

The Hampton Police Division has arrested a suspect in connection with multiple residential burglaries that occurred in the first block of Tidemill Lane.

Between January 8, 2013 and August 7, 2013 four residential burglaries occurred in the first block of Tidemill Lane. In three of the incidents the suspect gained access through unlocked rear windows and in the fourth incident the suspect forced entry through a rear door. During each of the burglaries the suspect took electronics, cell phones and jewelry before fleeing the scene.

On August 7, 2013 the suspect was identified as Damian Lashon Glee-Hall, a 19-year-old Hampton resident that resides in first block of Tidemill Lane. He was arrested and charged with four counts of Burglary, four counts of Grand Larceny and one count of Larceny with the Intent to Sell. He is currently incarcerated in the Hampton City Jail.

ARRESTED
