Suspect Arrested in Robbery Investigation: 400 Martha Lee Drive

On August 28th, 2013 the Hampton Police Division arrested Kevin Shantale Madison in connection with a robbery that took place on August 4, 2013.

At 3:00 a.m., the victim was on foot in the 400 block of Martha Lee Drive when he was approached by the suspect in a silver sedan. The suspect produced a firearm, assaulted the victim and then demanded money from the 32-year-old man. After obtaining credit cards from the victim, the suspect fled the area in an unknown direction of travel. The investigation identified Kevin Shantale Madison, a 27-year-old Suffolk man with a last known address in the 3200 block of Holland Road, in connection with this incident. On August 4, 2013 warrants were obtained against Mr. Madison for one count of Robbery, one count of Use of a Firearm in Commission of a Felony and one count of Maiming.

On August 28, 2013 at 7:14 p.m., the Hampton Police Division received reliable information that Kevin Shantale Madison was located in a residence in the 100 block of Michigan Drive and was possibly armed with a firearm. As a precaution, the Hampton Special Weapons and Tactics Team was activated and responded to the address. At 11:45 hours, Kevin Shantale Madison voluntarily exited the residence and was taken into custody without further incident. He remains in custody at the Hampton City Jail.
