Suspect Arrested in Multiple Burglary Investigations

The Hampton Police Division has arrested a suspect in connection with multiple burglary investigations which occurred August 14, 2013 – September 12, 2013.

On September 12, 2013, detectives were on patrol in the 1200 block of North King Street investigating recent burglaries. They observed a suspicious individual matching the suspect description that had been provided in a previous burglary. The individual fled when detectives attempted to make contact with him and he was subsequently taken into custody without incident after a short foot pursuit. The suspect has been identified as Matthew Alexander Rodriguez, a 20-year-old homeless Hampton man. He is currently in custody with the Hampton Sheriff's Office and has been charged with four counts of Burglary and four counts of Grand Larceny.
