For Immediate Release                                                       September 20, 2013

Suspect Arrested in Burglary Investigation: 1300 Block of Chesapeake Avenue

The Hampton Police Division has arrested Isaiah Everette Drummond Jr., in connection with a burglary that occurred on September 19, 2013.

At 7:03 p.m., Hampton Communications received an alarm activation from a residence in the 1300 block of Chesapeake Avenue.  At 7:10 p.m., one of the officers that were en route to the address observed a suspicious male in the 1000 block of Chesapeake Avenue.   After further investigation, it was determined that the suspect was in possession of burglary tools and potentially stolen property.  Additional officers responded to the alarm activation and discovered that a suspect had forced entry into the home through a rear door.  Once officers made contact with the home owner they were able to confirm that the suspect had stolen a cooler, medications and jewelry from the residence.

Isaiah Everette Drummond Jr., a 51-year-old homeless man, has been arrested in connection with this incident. He was charged with one count of Burglary, two counts of Grand Larceny and one count of Possession of Burglary Tools.  He remains in custody at the Hampton City Jail.
