Stabbing Investigation: 2200 block of Shell Road

On October 12, 2013, at 10:23 p.m., the Hampton Police Dispatch received a w911 in reference to a stabbing complaint in the 2200 block of Shell Road. Upon officer's arrival, they located a 36-year-old Hampton male victim suffering from stab wounds to his upper body in the stairwell outside of the residence. The victim was transported by ambulance to a local hospital with potential life threatening injuries.

The preliminary investigation revealed that the suspect involved in this incident remained inside of the residence. Due to the serious nature of this offense the Hampton Police Division SWAT Team was dispatched to the scene. The suspect was quickly taken into custody without incident. The circumstances and motive surrounding this incident are unknown and the investigation is on-going.

The relationship between the victim and suspect is domestic related therefore; I will not be providing the nature of their relationship so as to not directly or indirectly identify the victim.

Corporal Mary Shackelford will receive questions about this release at 757-846-6866.
