

Drop Box Comments “What Do You Value”

PTC (Peninsula Town Center)3/21/2010

- Hardy Cash a wonderful man and valued employee but his salary might save 2-3 other’s jobs. It is time for him to leave
- School Funding-Handi-ride for the Handy caped 311 call Center. Police!!!
- Library/Parks/Education
- Education, Education, Education
- Think courthouse upgrades can wait until budget crisis is resolved

Charles H. Taylor Art Center 3/23/10

- HOV Lanes and No Tolls
- Hampton Arts-CTAC-allows painters to use venue to practice their craft for min. amount of money.
- I spend 30 min. to get there and back other’s in Tues. morning painter come from across the monitor Mair. Tunnel and Hampton Rds. Tunnel keep this place going.
- I value the Arts
- I do not value tree’s flower plantings. I value the Arts
- I value the Art Center
- Arts anything to do with be happy on this eart
- I came from Chesapeake to paint, and love the exhibits-this leads us to various restaurants in the area and other events.
- I value Arts and Friendships:
- Charles H. Taylor Art Center Tuesday morning painters I am an Army active duty wife I found friends I could paint with
- I value Hampton Arts
- I live in York County but drive to Hampton frequently in order to take advantage of programs in the Charles Taylor Arts Center. I also attend shows at the American Theatre and usually eat dinner in Hampton before the shows
- Value the CHT especially the Tuesday Morning Paintes
- I value Charles Taylor Arts and it’s wonderful arts program under the leadership of James Warwick Jones. Please spare us!
- I value art classes at Charles H. Taylor Gallery
- I value Hampton Arts
- Hampton History-Preservation, Education, Buckroe Beach to stay the same

Patrick’s Hardware

- I value City Parks & Wetlands
- Protecting “our” wetlands and not draining and then building... Keeping Buckroe Park a public park – not building on that land.
- I value I safety, safety is number one on my list Brightwood Ave is too dark

Willow Oaks Library3/23/2010

- I value Dockmaster Greg
- Hampton Downtown City Marina Dockmaster Greg has shown consistency over the last 3-4 years/we are using the city Marina a highly interested professional and friendly helper attitude. He is a great ambassador for the city. The best I've met up and down the east coast.
- For dredging, split higher assessment and give a percent to dredging
- I value Flood Control
- Flood control Master Plan should be developed for and by city of Hampton in order to get money from Chesapeake Bay Foundation & FEMA to do dredging, etc. to control flooding
- Entertainment venues like the Air & Space Center and the Hampton Coliseum Events
- Open Air Spaces- Parks, Restaurants etc.
